

the Q's of life #1 friends

In life we make friends and those friends are conciderd family right? Friends make every minute of life living well right? We today use the word friends to loosely kinda like were we use the rating 10 to loosely right? Here is what I know as the definition of friends, friends are people that are close to you always willing to give there time or even there life for there friends friends are close friends are always able to be counted on in time of need for friends are permeate and not gust replaceable like items that have no meaning is friends are close as they chose to be the closer you get the easier life is for wold you go into a battle alone for your country or would you like a army of friends to accompany you? Now the next time i talk with you it will be about family thank you for reading and I hope this will help you sometime in your life.

the Q's of life #2 family

What is family? Are they the ones you are related to? Are they the people you are very close to? Or are they your friends? The real answer is all of the above for family is more than the ones you are related to close to or even friends with. Family is such a complex word in a world of hurt. Dont let your family down buy you actions for wile you are hurting them you are hurting your self more! Don't hurt your family for they are helping you thew life more than you think. How do they help you? (hint: look at last post) How do you help them? As Ronald Regan said "dont ask what your country can do for you ask what can you do for your country" i feel in this case it should be dont ask what your family can do for you but ask what you can do for your family. Remember these are the people that help you with the wars of life! Do not hinder them or you will be lost in the world with no way out but to fix the hinderance. The next post will be about the wars of life.

the Q's of life #3 the wars of life

War but I don't want to be in a war?!? Well what can I do to stay away from the wars of life? How are there wars of life? Who starts them and finishes them? All of the questions above are easily answered buy this..... You may not want to go though the wars of life but it is imposable not to as you can do nothing to prevent them ether. the wars of life are caused by your every day actions and the temptations caused buy them. Who starts and finishes the wars of life in your life is all up to you your choices to be specific. The wars of life are easier to go thew with your friends and family as it has been stated in earlier posts. Now ask your self what wars you have won and with ones you have lost? What can you do to fix the problem if there is one? how do your friends and family help you in the wars of life? And now ask yourself what you do to help your friends and family in the wars of life? The next in this series will be about your choices.

What dose influence mean? What dose it have do do with my choices? Why is any of this important? Well influence means what helps cause that to happen. It has to do with your choices because bad influences like rap and most rock are bad influences on your thinking. Ever noticed that after you listen to ether of these or watched certain tv shows u feel angry or depressed? That is because the "influenced" your emotions witch have a great deal on your choices! That is why you need to try and stay happy for that is the best way to get a positive look on the world and have good choices! I know as well as you do no one can stay happy forever so you will always go off track once and a wile so don't feel bad if you do. Now ask yourself what bad choices can you thing of when you have a positive outlook on life? Also ask yourself what good choices that you have made when you had a negative outlook on life? If your answer was not none try to rethink that. Next can you make a good decision when you are sad or a bad decision when you are happy? That was a trick question the and family. A good choice is one that is to help you not hinder like a bad choice is. The choices are sort of like this tea/water vs pop/coffee the coffee or the pop tastes relay good but there bad for you as tea or water is good for you. The point of that was to show you that the good choice is not always the most favorable at first but it will be in the end. Like your every day choices like stealing it may be the fastest way to get some thing but you will end up in jail as if you just earned the money first and bought it it that may be slower but it has no bad ending. Now i suggest that you talk with a family member and discuss how do choices help the wars of life? Now also ask your self were do i go for help on my choices(hint look back in previous posts) ? How do they help me ? And last for today what good choices have i made this week vs bad choices? Next post will be about what influences you in your choices.
